

CATTLE THIEVES ARE ARRESTED

PLACED IN JAIL AT TOMBSTONE
YESTERDAY

Sheriff Dell Lewis and Two Rangers
Make the Arrest at the Old
"Seven-Up" Ranch

Sunday night Sheriff Dell Lewis arrived in Tombstone with Lee Wright and George Corryell, charged with stealing cattle.

The arrest was made at what is known as the "Old Seven-Up" ranch in the Chiricahua mountains, on warrants sworn out by E. J. Jacklin, a cattle man.

Not long ago E. J. Jacklin, accompanied by Tom Pepper, were rounding up cattle in that vicinity, when they found several head of cattle in the pasture owned by Wright and Corryell, with burned brands. The cattle originally had been branded 7 D. In addition to seven or eight head owned by Jacklin several head belonging to the 4-Bar ranch, with brands burned out, were also discovered.

Sheriff Lewis left Tombstone on Saturday to make the arrest and on the way met Rangers Wheeler and Holland who accompanied the sheriff to the pasture.

Wright and Corryell submitted to arrest quietly. They say they will give bonds just as soon as they can have their hearing.

HUMOR OF THE HOUR

She Cornered Him.

The query editor was troubled, not to say angry. "Hang it all!" he exclaimed as he read the letter addressed to his department. "My wife has been asking me that question for the last week, and I refused to be bothered!" He looked at the letter again and jumped out of his chair. "Thunder and guns!" he cried. "It's her handwriting too. Now that she has learned the trick she'll make me settle every social, household and historical question that comes up and I'll be right on hand to take the blame if I make a mistake." For a long time he remained buried in thought. Then he resigned.—Bracelyn Eagle.

He Followed Directions.

Murphy being sick and alone in his cabin, Hogan volunteered to take care of him. The patient had been getting very little sleep, so the doctor left some powders and told Hogan to give Murphy one about bedtime.

About 7 o'clock in the evening Hogan went out for a few minutes, and when he returned Murphy was fast asleep. He slept soundly until 10 o'clock, when Hogan went to the bedside, shook the sleeping man vigorously and shouted: "Wa-ake up here, Moorphy, till Oi give yez these powders t' ma-ake ye sleep!"—Colorado Springs Gazette.

Magna Charta.

King John of England was having another fight with the barons. "Anyhow," he argued, "the king can do no wrong!"

"No," snickered the court jester; "he can't do much write either." The wrathful monarch ordered the fool beheaded for this remark and then signed the Magna Charta to disprove it.—New York Times.

Just the Thing.

"I don't know what to use to raise my bread," said the young wife petulantly. "I've tried everything."

"Judging by the samples I have seen," suggested her inhuman husband, "I should think a couple of jack-screws or a derrick ought to do it." And he wondered why he got a cold supper that night.—Portland Oregonian.

A Valorous Dodge.

Holloran—Av ye say two more words, O'll come down an' bre'k yer face!
Hoolahan—Ye dasn't!
Holloran (closing the window)—Ye coward; O'll not hear another word out av ye!

Recognized the Sound.

It was her first ride in an automobile, and she was deeply interested in the horn that was used to notify people to clear the way.
"Papa," she said.
"Well?" he returned.
"Make it snore some more!"—Chicago Post.
